THE INDIA AND BURMA (EMERGENCY PROVISIONS) ACT, 1939

(2-4-40, c. No. 3)

An Act to make emergency provision with regard to the Government of India and Burma.

[27th June 1939]

Enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the said, as follows:—

1. (1) Any power of appointment or removal from any office in India

including any power as to appointments to such offices, as an officer being a person who, apart from the provisions of this section, would be removable by His Majesty, shall, during the period specified in section 2 of this Act, be exercisable also by the Government-General.

Provided that this subsection shall not apply in relation to the office of Governor-General or the office of the Secretary of State for the Government of India, but section 10 of the Government of India Act, 1935, as set out in the Ninth Schedule to the Government of India Act, 1935, provided for the temporary exercise of the powers of the Government-General in the event of a vacancy in that office shall apply in relation to any period during which the Government-General is for any reason unable to perform the duties of his office as it applies in relation to the period mentioned in subsection (5) of the said section 10.

(2) Any provision which, under the Government of India Act, 1935, could be made (a) by an order in Council made in accordance with the provisions of subsection (1) of section 103 of that Act, or (b) by rules made by or with the sanction of the Secretary of State, may, during the period specified in section 2 of this Act, be made also by the Government-General by notification in the Gazette of India; and any notification made under this subsection may be varied or revoked by a subsequent notification made thereunder or in any other manner in which such Order in Council, or, as the case may be, such rules could be varied or revoked.

(3) Section 72 of the Government of India Act, 1935, as set out in the Ninth Schedule to the Government of India Act, 1935, empowers the Government-General power to make Ordinances in case of emergency shall, as respects Ordinances made during the period specified in section 2 of this Act, have effect as if the words "for the space of not more than six months from the promulgation of such Ordinance, and notwithstanding the provisions of the said section 72 that the power of making Ordinances is subject to the like restrictions as the power of the Indian Legislature to make laws" in that section 72 that the power of making Ordinances is subject to the like restrictions as the power of the Indian Legislature to make laws" (which empowers certain British subjects to be certain laws made shall not apply to any Ordinance made under the said section 72 during that period.

(4) The Government of the Government-General under this section shall be deemed for the purposes of the Government of India Act, 1935, to be included among the functions which he is, by or under that Act, required to exercise in his discretion, and in each of sections 115 of the Interpretation Act, 1939, as respects that the expression "Government-General" is relevant to the period between the commencement of Part III of the Government of India Act, 1935, and the establishment of the Federation of India, means the Government-General in Council shall not apply to this section.

2. (1) Any power of appointment or removal from any office in India

including any power as to appointments to such offices, as an officer being a person who, apart from the provisions of this section, would be removable by His Majesty, shall, during the period specified in section 2 of this Act, be exercisable also by the Government-General.

Provided that this subsection shall not apply in relation to the office of Governor.

(2) Any provision which, under the Government of Burma Act, 1936, could be made (a) by an Order in Council made in accordance with the provisions of subsection (1) of section 127 of that Act, or (b) by rules made by the Secretary of State, may, during the period specified in section 2 of this Act, be made also by the Government-General by notification in the official Gazette of Burma; and any notification made under this subsection may be varied or revoked by a subsequent notification made thereunder, or in any other manner in which such an Order in Council, or, as the case may be, such rules, could be varied or revoked.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in Part IV of the Government of Burma Act, 1935, any Ordinance promulgated under section 34 of that Act during the period specified in section 3 of that Act and any Government's Act made during that period may affect the army Act, Air Force Act or the Naval Discipline Act, or any similar law created by competent authority in India; and section 34 of the Government of Burma Act, 1935 (which exempts certain British subjects from certain Burmese laws) shall not apply to any Ordinance under the said section 34 or to any Government's Act promulgated or made during that period.

(4) The functions of the Governor under this section shall be deemed for the purposes of the Government of Burma Act, 1935, to be conferred among the functionaries which he is, by or under that Act, required to exercise in his discretion.

(5) The operation of subsection (3) of section 3 of the Government of Burma Act, 1935 (which relates to the procedure to be followed on the issue of Ordinances by His Majesty) is hereby suspended during the period specified in section 3 of this Act.

3. The period referred to in the preceding sections shall extend until such time as the period beginning with the date of the passing of this Act and ending with such date as His Majesty may by Order in Council declare to be the end of the emergency which was the occasion of the passing of this Act.

4. (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of Sections 1 to 3 of the Government of Burma Act, 1935, and section 34 of the Government of Burma Act, 1935 (which provide for the control of the Secretary of State over the discretionary powers of the Government-General of India, and the Governor of Burma), the powers exercisable by virtue of this Act by the Government-General of India and by the Governor of Burma shall not be exercised except as the direction of the Secretary of State.

Provided that the Government-General or Governor, as the case may be, may exercise any such power without any such direction if and only if it appears to him that it is essential that the powers should be exercised and that a previous reference to the Secretary of State is likely to cause undue delay in the exercise thereof.

(2) The validity of anything done by the Government-General or Governor shall not be called in question on the ground that it was done otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this section.

5. This Act may be cited as the India and Burma (Emergency Powers) Act, 1949.

(Enacted by order of His Majesty the Governor)

F. APPE NAIR,
Secretary to Government.

Order regarding allocation of the Narayana Appayagar Endowment situated at Ramaswamikalambam, Madurai.*FINDING RELIGIOUS ENDOWMENTS BOARD, MADURAI.

GOA No. 275 of 1938.—In the matter of the Narayana Appayagar Endowment made under a will, dated 1st July 1941, executed by Narayana Appayagar, Madurai, District, and situated at Ramaswamikalambam, Madurai.

Pursuant to order section 11 of the Madras Hindu Religious Endowments Act, 1938 (Madras Act II of 1937), to determine what portion of said endowment or property or of the income thereof shall be allocated to religious uses.

Board's Order No. 206, dated 15th May 1946.

This case having come on for final hearing on 15th March 1946, the parties not having appeared and having made no plea for reconsideration till that day, the Board decides that the terms created under the Will executed by Narayana Appayagar, Madurai, District, are religious endowments coming within the scope of Madras Act II of 1937 and that, therefore, the question of allocation as between charitable and religious purposes arose under section 77 of the Act in this case.

Notes for the appointments of teachers under School Rules.

Port St. George, June 18, 1925
(Sd/-) S. V. KRISHNA AYYAR.

No. 215.

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 10 of the Madras Education Code, 1920, the Government of Madras, in exercise of the powers conferred by Section 10 of the Madras Education Code, 1920, do hereby direct that the following rules relating to the appointments of teachers in schools maintained by local bodies—

RULES.

5. (1) Save as otherwise provided in sub-rule (2) and (3), every person appointed to a post of teacher in any school maintained by a local body shall—

(a) if the post is in a secondary school, possess the qualifications laid down in the Madras Educational Code for the time being in force; and
(b) if the post is in an elementary school, possess the qualifications prescribed by the rules for the grant of recognition to elementary schools.

Provided that no holder of a limited teacher's certificate of the lower elementary grade shall be appointed to any elementary school except with the previous consent, in the case of an elementary school for boys, of the District Educational Officer concerned, and in the case of an elementary school for girls, of the Inspector of Schools concerned.

Each school shall not be necessary for the recommendation of a holder of a limited teacher's certificate of the lower elementary grade who was in service as a teacher in an elementary school maintained by a local body as a teacher in the 19th July 1925 and who was not called for want of a vacancy.

Every person appointed under the above proviso shall be accompanied by a certificate from the officer concerned in the school that he possesses the qualifications higher than those specified in the proviso is available for appointment to the post in question.

(2) A person not possessing the qualifications specified in clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-rule (1), as the case may be, may be appointed to any post referred to in sub-rule (1), with the previous consent—

(i) in the case of a secondary or elementary school for boys, of the District Educational Officer concerned; and

(ii) in the case of a secondary or elementary school for girls, of the Inspector of Schools concerned.

Every person appointed under this sub-rule shall be accompanied by a certificate from the officer concerned in the school that he possesses the qualifications specified in clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-rule (1), as the case may be, is available for appointment to the post in question. Such person shall not be valid for more than one year.

(3) An authorized person may be appointed as teacher in an elementary school with the previous consent of the Deputy Inspector or the Sub-Inspector (as the case may be), in special cases for a period of not more than one year at a time where it is necessary—

(i) to satisfy local needs, provided that such person possesses general educational qualifications not inferior to a pass in the 11th Form and belongs to the locality in which the school is situated; or

(ii) to remove the undue predominance of any community in the personnel of teachers in the elementary schools maintained by the local body concerned.

2. (1) The names of all teachers who were in the service of the Government on the first day of April 1925 or in the service of the Government on the first day of April 1925 and who do not possess the qualifications specified in clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-rule (1) of rule 1, as the case may be, shall be referred without delay to the District Educational Officer or the Inspector as the case may be in the case of secondary schools and to the Deputy Inspector or the Sub-Inspector as the case may be in the case of elementary schools.

Provided that such reference shall not be necessary in the case of a holder of a limited teacher's certificate of the lower elementary grade who was in service as a teacher in an elementary school on or before the 18th July 1925.

(2) The officer to whom the case of any teacher is referred under sub-rule (1) shall certify—

(a) that the teacher is fit to be sent up for training; or

(b) that the teacher is too old to be sent for training but is otherwise fit for retention; or

(c) that the teacher is unfit for retention.

(3) Teachers in respect of whom the certificate under clause (a) of sub-rule (2) is given shall be sent up for training as early as possible and in the order in which they were first appointed.

(4) Teachers in respect of whom the certificate under clause (b) of sub-rule (2) is given shall be sent up for training as early as possible and in the order in which they were first appointed. The District Educational Officer in the case of secondary schools for boys, and to the Inspector of Schools in the case of secondary schools for girls, of the District Educational Officer in the case of elementary schools for boys, and to the Inspector of Schools in the case of elementary schools for girls, of the District Educational Officer or the Sub-Inspector (as the case may be) may grant or refuse to grant the necessary recommendation.

2. (1) A woman shall be eligible for appointment as teacher in a high school or a teacher.
- (2) No man shall be eligible for appointment as teacher in a girls' school as a teacher, unless—
- (a) he is over 30 years of age, and
- (b) a woman teacher who is qualified under clause (1) or clause (4) of sub-rule (1) of rule 1, at the time may be, is not available for appointment.
3. Any expenditure incurred after these rules come into force, in respect of temporary teachers appointed, or salaries in pursuance of these rules, shall be chargeable on the Government of the Madras Presidency or on the Government of the Madras State.

School scheme for the award of the Madras European School-Leaving Certificate

(Approved in G.O. No. 2118, Law (Education), dated 12th December 1935)

For St. George, May 24, 1949
(G.O. No. 2118, Education)

No. 211.

1. The following scheme for the award of the Madras European School-Leaving Certificate is published for general information.

2. To obtain admission—The candidate may be admitted, on the completion of their school course, to boys or girls who—

(a) have attended one or more recognised European schools from at least the seventh standard upwards.

(b) have attended each of the seventh, eighth and ninth standards either (i) for not less than 60 per cent of the number of working days in each term and for not less than 100 working days in each school year or (ii) for not less than 200 working days in each year; and

(c) have passed the European High School Examination.

The school year will be the calendar year. A school day shall consist of at least five hours of regular instruction; but two lessons each of not less than two and a half hours whether on the same day or on different days shall be counted as one school day.

Days of attendance at the European High School and Madras School Examinations or at any other public examination shall be days of regular school work for purposes of calculating attendance.

A pupil who has been in school in another in the course of a term may be permitted to count his attendance during the year provided (i) he has attended for 60 per cent of the number of working days of the term in one or more schools in each term and that such attendance amounts to not less than 100 days or (ii) that the total educational attendance at the school or schools is not less than 200 days in the year.

Shortage of attendance will, in specially hard cases, be condoned by the Inspector of European Schools. Applications for the condonation of such shortage shall be made to the Inspector of European Schools in the first week of November.

3. The school course.—A book in the possession of the school course whether in the case of a pupil reading for a supplementary course or otherwise, will be marked by the Inspector when each book is due either to those properly checked for or for first sufficient class, in which case the pupil may be readmitted into the standard in which he was previously standing unless he has completed the course in that standard and is qualified for promotion in which case he may be admitted into the next higher standard. To "book" is meant an absence from school for one whole term or more.

The Inspector may cancel the promotion of pupils whose attendance in the first or second terms of the preceding year has not qualified them for promotion. Such pupils will be allowed to remain in the standard required in the higher standard towards their attendance in the first.

Readmission may be refused unless attendance in a supplementary course in a pupil who, after reading, are not under 20 marks in the course and their further written in a pupil term the course is in the and standard. Thereafter only in supplementary course ought it to be necessary to take a pupil taking a supplementary course from again into the high school examination.

4. The school course.—The certificate shall be awarded by a Board consisting of the Inspector of European Schools or President, three elected by the Government Educational Service and five nominated members. Of the elected members, one shall be nominated on nomination by the Council of the Madras University. Of the non-elected members, one shall be appointed as President by the Governor of the Madras University and another as member by the Governor of the Madras University.

The members of the Board shall be appointed for a period of three years and shall be eligible for re-appointment.

The Secretary to the Commissioner for Government Examinations shall be the Secretary to the Board.

The Board shall arrange for the award of the certificate in accordance with the provisions of the scheme.

5. The subjects of study and syllabuses for the European school examinations shall be fixed in the Regulations and Syllabuses published separately.

6. Mark register.—The results of school work shall be entered against each subject taught in the school in the form of a number of marks gained out of a certain of 100 for each subject, through the system of work in each subject. This does not mean the total marks for the average of marks for anything and everything else as the other head the summing of marks individually on formal stated marks of which the school has been given and for which special preparation has been made. Marks should not decrease the school work, although they may be given for every type of work such as the copy, formal written exercises, class and preparation notes and classroom tests. It is recommended that as a rule marks be not assigned for each work.

In the award of marks which should always be in the form of whole numbers which should be fixed at the discretion of the Secretary to the Board, the system of work in each subject, through the system of work in each subject. Act No. XI of 1940—Madras Legislative (The Service Control of Disqualification)	Page 11

The following Act received the assent of His Excellency the Governor on the 16th July 1940 and is hereby published for general information:—

ACT No. XII OF 1940.

An Act for the removal of certain disqualifications for the membership of the Madras Legislature.

WHEREAS it is necessary to remove the disqualification imposed on persons holding office in any branch of His Majesty's Military, Naval or Air Forces or in the Defence Department of the Central Government, for being chosen as, and for being, members of the Madras Legislative Assembly or the Madras Legislative Council;

ENACTED

[ 29 ]

AND WHEREAS the Governor of Madras has, by a Proclamation under section 61 of the Government of India Act, 1935, assumed to himself all powers vested by or under the said Act in the Provincial Legislature; and Now, THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers so assumed to himself, the Governor is pleased to enact as follows:—

Short title.

Extent of disqualification for members of the Madras Legislative Assembly in certain cases.

1. This Act may be called the Madras Legislature (War Service Removal of Disqualifications) Act, 1946.
2. No person shall be disqualified for being chosen as, or for being, a member of the Madras Legislative Assembly or the Madras Legislative Council, by reason only of the fact that he holds any office in the Army in India Reserve of Officers, the Indian Territorial Force, or any other branch of His Majesty's Military, Naval or Air Forces, or in the Defence Department of the Central Government.

(By order of His Excellency the Governor)

P. APPU NAIR,
Secretary to Government, Legal Department.
